PERSONAL PROJECTS

Candy Crush Game (10/2019 - 12/2019)

- Designed a Candy Crush-like game using 2D arrays in C++ for the 'Programming Fundamentals' course. Scored the highest marks in class.

Duplicate of Flex (04/2020 - 05/2020)

- A project that assisted me in cementing the principles of 'Object-Oriented Programming' by implementing a terminal application using C++.

Learning Management System (12/2020 - 01/2021)

- Created a user interface for a learning management system using Java Spring as an independent project.

Wikipedia Replica (06/2021 - 10/2021)

- A project for Data Structures that built upon the practical usage of theoretical knowledge. The user data was executed as a hash map and the pages were implemented as nodes in a graph.

Voting App (01/2022 - 02/2022)

- Developed an in-depth web application for the 'Ruby on Rails' full stack development bootcamp at DEVSINC.

Hotel Management System (04/2022 - 06/2022)

- A website for HMS that was created for the 'Advanced Programming' class. 'React JS' is the front-end technology, 'mySQL' is the database, and 'Java Swing' is the back-end technology.

Personal Portfolio (09/2022 - 10/2022)

- A personalized and responsive personalized portfolio to practice my web development skills in HTML, JS(ESL6) and SCSS.
